15. Force Majeure

- 15.1 Subject to Clause 11.2, and save in respect of the payment of Fees, neither Party shall have any Liability for any breach, hindrance or delay in performance of its obligations under this Agreement which is caused by an Event of Force Majeure, regardless of whether the circumstances in question could have been foreseen. An "Event of Force Majeure" means any cause outside of the Party's reasonable control, including act of God, actions or omissions of third parties (including hackers, suppliers, couriers, governments, quasi-governmental, supra-national or local authorities), insurrection, riot, civil war, civil commotion, war, hostilities, threat of war, warlike operations, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, breaking off of diplomatic relations or similar actions, national emergencies, terrorism, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination or sonic boom, piracy, arrests, restraints or detentions of any competent authority, blockade, strikes or combinations or lock-out of workmen, epidemic, fire, explosion, storm, flood, drought, adverse weather conditions, loss at sea, earthquake, natural disaster, accident, collapse of building structures, failure of plant machinery or machinery or third party computers or third party hardware or vehicles, failure or problems with public utility supplies (including general: electrical, telecoms, water, gas, postal, courier, communications or Internet disruption or failure), shortage of or delay in or inability to obtain supplies, stocks, storage, materials, equipment or transportation.
- 15.2 Each of the Parties agrees to inform the other Party upon becoming aware of an Event of Force Majeure, such information to contain details of the circumstances giving rise to the Event of Force Majeure.
- 15.3 The performance of each Party's obligations shall be suspended during the period that the circumstances persist and such Party shall be granted an extension of time for performance equal to the period of the delay.
- 15.4 Each Party shall bear its own Fees incurred by the Event of Force Majeure.
- 15.5 If the performance of any obligations is delayed under this Clause 15, each Party shall nevertheless accept performance as and when the other shall be able to perform.
- 15.6 If the breach, hindrance or delay referred to in Clause 15.1 caused by the Event of Force Majeure continues without a break for more than one month, either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately by notice to the other Party, in which event neither Party shall have any Liability (subject to Clause 11.2) to the other Party by reason of such termination.
- 15.7 If we have contracted to provide identical or similar licences and/or services to more than one client and we are prevented from fully meeting our obligations to you due to an Event of Force Majeure, we may decide at our absolute discretion which contracts we will perform and to what extent.

18.2 A notice shall be deemed to have been received: if delivered personally, when left at the address referred to in Clause 18.1; if sent by pre-paid first class post or recorded delivery, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting; or, if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed.

18.3 The provisions of this Clause 18 shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action.

19. Assignment

You shall not assign, transfer, charge or otherwise encumber, create any trust over, or deal in any manner with, this Agreement or any right, benefit or interest under it, nor transfer, novate or sub-contract any of your obligations under it, without our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

20. Severance

20.1 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

20.2 If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision of this Agreement would be valid, enforceable and legal if some part of it were deleted, the provision shall apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable.

21. Third party rights

A person who is not a Party shall not have any rights under or in connection with this Agreement.
